Subject: Compliance Training Day 10 - Introduction to Data Protection

COMPLIANCE
AND DATA
PROTECTION

Liberal
Democrats

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to the tenth day of the February
Compliance Challenge!

Your Introduction to Data Protection

Whatever your role in the Party, how we handle data forms part of your daily activities.

Data Protection is essential across all areas of the Party and should be incorporated into planning and practice whenever we are processing personal data.

If we get it wrong, it can cost us heavily by damaging our reputation and sometimes result in financial penalties.

The Party takes matters of data protection seriously; hopefully this video will give you an overview of key aspects and signpost you to further guidance and training.
